

CHRISTIAN MUSIC FROM THE NORTH

THE NORTHMEN & CATHY

NEWS RELEASE

The Northmen & Cathy are celebrating 28 years in 2017, as a full-time Christian music ministry. They are busier than ever, singing several concert dates per year, and sharing the gospel in venues across the country in 40 states, including Alaska and Hawaii. The Northmen & Cathy have sung in 6 foreign countries to date and sang on several cruise lines. Alan Godsey and The Northmen & Cathy host the Northern Gospel Singing Convention, which will be held on August 3, 4, and 5, 2017. Alan Godsey, founder, is very excited as 2017 is the 18th year for the Northern Gospel Singing Convention. Dozens of gospel music artists from across the nation will be singing. The convention is one of the fastest growing national events in the country. The convention is held in Marion, Indiana, annually. The Northmen & Cathy also host their Homecoming Anniversary concert in March in Fort Wayne, Indiana; and the Annual Winter Singfest in January, in Warsaw, Indiana.

The Northmen & Cathy recently recorded the new project, "NOW", at Daywind Studio A, Hendersonville, TN. This project is a collaboration of hymns to progressive gospel music of today. The Northmen & Cathy are so fortunate to be heard on radio stations across the country, including XM radio and Solid Gospel. The group has had 12 top 40 Gospel music singles and 3 top 20 songs in the national Singing News charts, along with other National charts.

The Northmen & Cathy consists of three members. The trio's lead singer and manager is Alan Godsey. Alan is from Cincinnati, Ohio. Alan's wife, Cathy, sings alto and plays piano, and is from Marion, Indiana. Singing baritone is Brad Luzadder, who brings smiles to many, from Marion, Indiana. The Northmen & Cathy are a ministry that entertains and uplifts the Christian, as well as reaches out to a lost and dying world to let them know that Jesus still saves.
